RT. REV. DR. TEMPLE

Appointed Archbishop of Canterbury and Primate of All England.

SUCCEEDS THE LATE DR. BENSON

Born in 1821, the son of an officer in the British Army—Author of "Essays and Reviews," which caused much controversy when issued.

London, Oct. 26.—The Right Hon. and Right Rev. Frederick Temple, D. D., provincial dean of Canterbury and dean of the chapel royal, has been appointed archbishop of Canterbury and primate of all England in the room of the Right Hon. and Most Rev. Edward White Benson, who died suddenly at Haverden on Oct. 11. The new archbishop of Canterbury is the son of an officer in the army. He was born Nov. 30, 1821, was educated at the grammar school at Tiverton, and, proceeding to Oxford, became scholar of Balliol college and took his degree of B. A. in 1842 as a double first class. He was elected fellow and mathematical tutor of his college and, having been ordained in 1846, was appointed principal of the training college at Kneller hall, near Twickenham, in 1848. This post he resigned in 1855, and having held an inspectorship of schools during the interval, was appointed, on the resignation of Dr. Goulburn, in 1858, head master of Rugby school. Dr. Temple, who was a chaplain to the queen, gained some notoriety in 1850 as the author of the first of the seven "Essays and Reviews" which caused so much controversy soon after their appearance. At the general election of 1895 Dr. Temple took an active part in Warwickshire in support of Mr. Gladstone's measure for the disestablishment of the Irish church; and the premier nominated him to the bishopric of Exeter in succession of the late Dr. Phillips—an appointment which caused some commotion in clerical circles. The confirmation of Dr. Temple's election took place Dec. 8, 1895, at the church of St. Mary-le-Bow, Chesham, when Bishop Trower, the representative of a portion of the clergy who were opposed to his election, because he was the author of the "Essays and Reviews," instructed counsel to oppose the election. Counsel were accordingly heard on both sides, and Dr. Temple's election was confirmed by the vicar-general. Dr. Temple received Episcopal consecration at Westminster, Dec. 21, 1895, together with the bishops-elect of Bath and Wells, and of the Falkland Islands. Dr. Temple published "Sermons Preached in Rugby Chapel in 1858-59," in 1861. In April, 1882, he was elected Bampton lecturer at Oxford for the ensuing year. On the death of Dr. Jackson in January, 1885, Dr. Temple was appointed bishop of London, and was succeeded at Exeter by Dr. Bickersteth.

Fatal Accident to a Carriage Party.
Amesbury, Mass., Oct. 26.—A fearful accident occurred here yesterday afternoon. Alfred H. Coombs, his wife, a ten-year-old boy named Percy, who lived with them, and another boy, a son of Alfred Morrill, started from Mr. Coombs' home at Tuxbury's Corner to drive to Newton N. H., to attend church, when the horse took fright and plunged over an embankment, throwing them out. Mrs. Coombs' head struck a tree, crushing it into an unrecognizable mass and breaking her neck. Mr. Coombs was rendered unconscious and will probably die. The boy Percy is injured internally, and it is believed he cannot recover.

John Eliot's First Sermon to the Indians.
Newton, Mass., Oct. 26.—November 28, 1619, the apostle to the Indians, John Eliot, preached his first sermon to the Indians at Naticum, now a portion of the city of Newton. The members of the Eliot church at Newton, which was named for the distinguished apostle, yesterday appropriately celebrated the event. At the morning service Rev. Dr. Ezra H. Byington of Newton preached an historical sermon upon the apostle. The evening service took the form of a union meeting, in which all the divines of the place participated.

Divorced from Margaret Mather.
Milwaukee, Oct. 26.—A decree of divorce has been granted to Col. C. G. Pabst, son of the millionaire brewer and himself a millionaire, from Margaret Mather, the actress. The decree was given to the husband by default on the ground of cruelty and inhuman treatment. The complaint alleged that on Oct. 2, 1895, Mrs. Pabst horse-whipped her husband on the public streets of Milwaukee, following him some nine blocks and repeatedly dealing him blows.

Another Demand on the Porte.
London, Oct. 26.—The Telegraph today publishes a dispatch from Constantinople saying that the dragomans of the six great powers have together attacked the porte on behalf of the embassies, conveying a joint note calling for the withdrawal of the imperial troops decreeing a forced levy of from five to twenty bibasies each upon 12,000,000 subjects with a view of arming the Muslim populace.

NINE KILLED OUTRIGHT

And a Score of Persons Injured in a Head-on Collision Near St. Louis.

St. Louis, Oct. 26.—A head-on collision occurred on the St. Louis & San Francisco railway near Mesance Highlands yesterday by which nine people were killed and a score injured. The scene of the wreck is thirteen miles west of this city. The Valley Park accommodation train going east very fast on a down grade, came into collision with the second section of a westbound excursion train going to St. James, Mo., and carrying 240 G. A. R. men and their families. The impact demolished both engines and wrecked or derailed all the cars. The news of the wreck soon reached Union station, and a relief train carrying physicians and nurses was at once sent out. Following is a list of the dead: Charles Hohl, engineer accommodation train, St. Louis; Conrad Kunze, excursionist, St. Louis; Charles M. Nobles, excursionist, St. Louis; W. C. Stromberg, excursionist, St. Louis; Frank Hasler, locomotive fireman, St. Louis; J. C. Blevins, passenger on accommodation, Rockville, Mo.; William Cartwright, excursionist, St. Louis; Bernard McKenna, St. Louis, in charge of refreshment car. Mary McKenna, aged 14, assisting her father. The injuries of the following are thought to be fatal. All are residents of St. Louis: Engineer Bryden of the excursion train; Henry Osgood, conductor excursion train; George Wolf, conductor accommodation train; Charles R. Milentz, Mrs. Peter Hall, Frank Garrity, J. K. Triplett and Frederick Lenz. The excursionists were going to St. James, Mo., to assist in the dedication of a home for the aged widows of veterans.

ATTACKS THE CONSTITUTION

Minister Foster says All Christian Citizens Should Refuse to Vote.

New York, Oct. 26.—In his sermon yesterday Rev. F. M. Foster of the Third Reformed Presbyterian church at West 23d street said that as the Constitution of the United States did not recognize God in it all citizens loyal to Christ were debarred from voting. "It is the duty of the Christian to refuse to swear allegiance to the constitution of a government which does not recognize the authority of Almighty God," he said. Mr. Foster said that the laws of God are broken every Sunday by the government, and as an example he cited that "the government will admit into its service of the postoffice department only those who will swear that they will violate the Fourth Commandment and keep the office open on the holy day. The candidate for office must, according to the constitution, swear that he will uphold the laws which contradict the laws of God. The Christian loyal to Christ cannot take such an oath, for if he does he becomes a sharer in the wickedness which is fostered and protected by this government. As all candidates must take this oath, the Christian citizen is debarred from voting on the principle that he cannot do another to do what he may not do himself. The Christian citizen cannot vote because the constitution does not require God's qualifications for official moral qualifications are required in the office-bearer." The Rev. Mr. Foster said, after the sermon, that one of his congregation would vote on election day.

An Army Officer's Remarkable Ride.

St. Louis, Oct. 26.—Lieut. Harry H. Benson of the Third cavalry has achieved a remarkable feat of horsemanship. He rode from St. James, Mo., to the barracks, 112 miles, in twenty-four hours and twenty-three minutes. He rode the same horse all the way, the animal he had ridden during the entire practice march to Springfield, Mo., and return. He made the last ten miles in two hours and six minutes. He made three stops on the journey.

Receipts Under the Raines Law.

Albany, Oct. 26.—State Excise Commissioner Lyman announces that the total receipts under the Raines liquor tax law to date amounts to $11,007,615.57. The amount rebated upon surrender of liquor tax certificates, which have occurred principally in the cases of summer hotels, summer boat lines, and excursion steamers, aggregates so far $175,993.78, and the rebates yet due and unpaid amount to $62,139.52. The balance remaining after payment of rebates is, Mr. Lyman says, $10,769,512.28.

Foul Play Suspected.

Providence, Oct. 26.—Chief of Police Baker has been asked by the district attorney of Scholoff, Delaware county, Pa., to examine the body of Mrs. A. H. Postel, who died in Chester, Pa., two weeks ago, and who was buried in this city. Foul play by poisoning is suspected.

Accepts a Call from Newport.

Newport, R. I., Oct. 26.—Rev. R. G. Boardman has announced his acceptance of the call recently extended to him to become pastor of the First Baptist church, the oldest church of the denomination in America. He is at present stationed at Genéva, N. Y. Mr. Boardman will assume charge here November 1.

Gossip from Berlin

Our Presidential Race Watched with Keen Interest in Germany.

NOT INTELLIGENTLY UNDERSTOOD

The Rumor That the Situation Is Such as To Threaten Civil War Ridiculed by the Press—Great Sugar King in Process of Formation.

Berlin, Oct. 26.—The progress of the presidential election campaign in the United States is watched here with the keenest interest, though more from a financial point of view than from any idea of contrasting the social positions occupied by the candidates. It is difficult, however, to get as yet even from the leading newspapers, which devote columns of space to the subject, an intelligent appreciation of the situation. Voluminous letters are received here by mail conveying to Germans the developments of the struggle in which so many millions of their fellow countrymen are interested, but few of the newspapers here follow an intelligent line of argument in discussing the questions which the campaign comprehends. The Vossische Zeitung says it is a rare thing in the political history of the United States to see democrats fighting on the side of the republicans and that it is still more surprising to see the democrats of the eastern states standing up for McKinley, despite the fact that he is the apostle of the doctrine of a high protective tariff, which they have consistently combated for years.

Ridicules Rumors of Civil War.

The Vossische, quoting from the New York Handelszeitung in regard to the platform upon which Mr. Bryan is making his campaign, proceeds to argue that neither the principle of the currency nor that of the tariff especially inspires Mr. Bryan and his followers, who, the paper says, simply strive to carry themselves along the old lines of belief that the spoils belong to the victors. The article concludes by saying that neither the victory of McKinley nor the defeat of Bryan will affect the movement in the United States, which depends upon causes far beyond the struggle which is now taking place between the great political parties of America. This may or may not be true, but the Vossische ventures nothing in saying so. The paper also ridicules the rumors which have been current in the columns of the English newspapers, and which have been repeated here, that the situation in the United States is such at the present time that a very narrow issue could involve civil war and says that the Germans, comprising a considerable part of the American populace, would at all events accept the result of the election without the slightest dream of revolt against the voice of the majority as expressed by the suffrages of the people. The Kreuz Zeitung is rather inclined to support Bryan against the gold men, and denies that his speeches can be construed as a menace of rebellion, as his opponents have alleged.

Gigantic Sugar Monopoly.

It is reported that a sugar ring is in process of formation whose membership will consist of 400 German sugar manufacturers. This organization proposes to establish a central point for the sale of the products of German sugar manufacturers and negotiations are in progress with a view of connecting the organization with the Austrian and Russian sugar trusts. The Freisinnige Zeitung, in an article announcing the proposed formation of this ring, characterizes the scheme as a gross outrage having for its object the exploitation of consumers in an attempt to cement an oppressive German sugar monopoly. The scheme, the Zeitung says, must be suppressed at all hazards. The Bismarckian newspaper organs in their comments upon the marriage of the Prince of Naples, crown prince of Italy, to Princess Helene of Montenegro, connects the incident with an English intrigue, whose object is to isolate Germany and cause the withdrawal of Italy from the Dreikönig. Maximilian Harden, writing to the Zukunft says that the Dreikönig is now only an external semblance of an alliance. Germany, he says, cannot reckon upon her allies, as she knows full well that Russia may at any moment give her assent to the scheme of an enemy (France) for revenge. The Zukunft in its comments upon the communication, traces the present position of the efforts to conciliate the czar.

Chicago's Rival Parades.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—After Judge Taft's refusal to enjoin Chief of Police Mahon from interfering with the democratic parade scheduled to march through the southern division of the city on the night of October 31, the democratic leaders applied to the chief of police for a permit to parade on the west side on the same date, and the chief granted the permit. The republicans will parade on the same night under their permit for the use of each side.

COUNT WILL BE SLOW

Much Delay Looked for in Election Returns Next Week.

MANY STATES ADOPT BLANKET BALLOT

Unless the Election Should Prove a Landslide There May Be Many Hours of Anxious Suspense—Fusion Tickets Will Add to the Delay.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The presidential election of Tuesday, Nov. 3, will be held under conditions which have never before prevailed, and which will render the official count a matter of difficulty and unusual delay. Since the last presidential contest almost every state which had not then adopted the Australian ballot system has by state enactment prescribed some form of secret blanket ballot, either based on the Australian plan or closely resembling it. The only exceptions are Georgia, Louisiana, North Carolina and South Carolina. In nearly all the other states blanket ballots will be used, and in many of them the count will be complicated by the fact that state legislative and county nominations are printed on the same ballot with the names of the presidential electors. Connecticut has an envelope system, and New Jersey prints each party ticket on a separate ballot. Should the election be in any way close, it is therefore quite possible that it may be twenty-four hours or even forty-eight hours after the polls close before the result is known with absolute certainty. In states like Nebraska, where there may possibly not be a margin of 5,000 votes either way, it will be impossible to arrive at a correct judgment until all the back counties are heard from. The polls in the cities close at 4 p. m., but the country districts keep open till 5 p. m., and with a governor, a legislature and county officers to elect all on one ballot it will take at least six hours to complete the count. Some idea of the general trend of the votes in Ohio can be obtained from the result of the counties in which Cincinnati and Cleveland are respectively situated and these results will probably be known comparatively early. The rest of the state, it is anticipated, will go pretty much as it has done in previous presidential years. The doubtful points are Hamilton and Cuyahoga counties. Chicago will control Illinois. There will be no doubt of the outcome when the vote of Cook county is recorded. But in other doubtful states like Indiana, Michigan and Kansas where state and legislative tickets also complicate the ballots, there will probably be no key note from which the result can be definitely determined on Tuesday night unless the election should prove a landslide. In that case, midnight may give a clear idea who are the victors and who the vanquished. Otherwise there may be many hours of anxious suspense. The last two presidential elections have been singularly free from uncertainty. It was known by 10 p. m., on election day in 1888 that Mr. Harrison had defeated Mr. Cleveland, and was known with equal certainty at 11 p. m. on election day in 1892 that Mr. Cleveland had defeated Mr. Harrison. But in the election of 1864, when Mr. Cleveland defeated Mr. Blaine, the official result hung in doubt over the vote of New York for four days. The fusion tickets will add a further element in the presidential count this year.

BRYAN IN ILLINOIS.

Democratic Nominee To Make a Speech at Jacksonville This Afternoon.
Jacksonville, Ill., Oct. 26.—William J. Bryan, who arrived here yesterday morning, this morning visited the State college, which he attended in his youth. This afternoon he will make a speech in the public enclosure known as "The Square," and at 5 o'clock will leave on his special train for Alton. As many visitors from out of town have arrived, a big crowd is expected to listen to the democratic nominee.

Do Not Like Harper's Theology.

Urbana, Ill., Oct. 26.—After a warm debate lasting four hours at the closing session of the Illinois Baptist association on the report of the committee on education, the section endorsing the divinity school of the University of Chicago was defeated by a vote of 72 to 22. Many of the clergymen, especially from the central and southern parts of the state, strongly opposed endorsement, alleging that the theology of President W. R. Harper of the Chicago institution is not sound.

Lillian Russell's Fifth Matrimonial Venture.

New York, Oct. 26.—A special to a morning newspaper from St. Louis says: For the fifth time in her comic opera career, Miss Lillian Russell is reported on the eve of a matrimonial venture. The wedding, it is said, will take place in San Francisco about the middle of November, and the groom will be Walter Jones of "In Gay New York."

A Michigan Pioneer Dead.

Grand Haven, Mich., Oct. 26.—Capt. Robert Howlett, one of the early pioneers of western Michigan, is dead. He was born in England in 1805, and was well known all over the lakes.

CUBAN INSURRECTION.

Rebel Reverses Reported—Evidence That the Dauntless Is a Filibuster.

Havana, Oct. 26.—General Gonzalez Manoz, commanding the Spanish troops operating in the northern division of the province of Pinar del Rio, reports that his division has occupied the camp of the insurgents at Carajicara. The rebels made a strong resistance to the advance of the Spaniards at the San Miguel pass, but were compelled to retire leaving thirteen of their number dead on the field. The Spaniards lost one killed and five wounded. The rebels, who were commanded by Maceo, after abandoning Carajicara attacked the trocha at Artemisa, firing twenty-five cannon shots and volleys of musketry, but they were eventually repulsed. The garrison at Artemisa had one man wounded. Documents captured by the rebels prove that the expedition which landed at Rio Hondo, near Cienfuegos, recently, was disembarked from the steamer Dauntless.

BOMBARDMENT OF ARTEMISA.

Cuban—Hurl Grenades Loaded with Dynamite into the Town.

New York, Oct. 26.—A special cable dispatch to the Herald from Havana says: The Herald's correspondent at Artemisa details Maceo's attack on the night of the 23d. He says that at 10.15 p. m. tremendous explosions were heard, followed quickly by others. Soon the bombs commenced to fall in the streets, bursting and causing horrible destruction. Gen. Arolas, in command of the garrison, animated his forces, giving an example of great valor in personally directing the defense. The cannonade lasted three-quarters of an hour. The enemy fired thirty-two cylindrical grenades, loaded with grape shot and dynamite. Fifty-five centimetres long and seven wide. The bombardment caused consternation and terror in the town. Women and children rushed from their homes and huddled in the best protected places. Many houses were completely destroyed and others more or less damaged. Up to the present time five residents are known to have been killed, including a girl of eleven years and a colored woman. Among the wounded were six children, ranging from two months to ten years old; ten women, nine men, and one private soldier of the local garrison.

New Jersey's Greeting to Maj. McKinley.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 26.—Three hundred republicans and democrats left the Market street station of the Pennsylvania railroad at 6 o'clock last evening for Canton, O., picking up pilgrims at Elizabeth and Trenton. The train was made up of four Pullman sleepers and seven day coaches. The party, through Comptroller Gibson, of this city, will extend New Jersey's greeting to William McKinley. They reached Canton at 9 a. m. to-day, and will leave that city at 5.30 p. m. arriving at Newark at 8 p. m. to-morrow.

Sag Harbor Soldiers' Monument.

Sag Harbor, L. I., Oct. 26.—The soldiers' monument was unveiled Saturday and the parade and other exercises were under the auspices of the Edwin A. Rose G. A. R. post. The fire department and school children preceded, and the Rev. John J. Harrison delivered an address. The monument is sixteen feet high, and has three polished bases surmounted by a soldier standing at parade rest. Patriotic sentiments are inscribed on the four sides of the base.

Republicans Claim Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 26.—(Chairman George W. Post of the republican state central committee today gave out his first official estimate of the election result in Nebraska in the following words: "Nebraska is unquestionably republican and will on November 3 be found the republican column. A most conservative poll of the state just completed shows a clear republican majority of both state and national tickets of not less than 18,000."

Paderewski in Good Health.

New York, Oct. 26.—In consequence of accounts published in the papers alleging that Paderewski, the renowned pianist, was suffering from illness and was in a broken-down condition at Aix-les-Bains, William Steinway of this city sent a telegraphic message of inquiry to the virtuoso, who replied by cable as follows: "In spite of so-called cable reports, I am enjoying perfect health; at least it is good enough for me."

Operated Upon for Appendicitis.

Philadelphia, Oct. 26.—An operation on appendicitis was performed upon George Walbridge, captain of the Lafayette college football team, yesterday at the German hospital here. The operation was successful, and the surgeon is in charge of the case, saying there is apparently no reason why Walbridge should not recover. This is Walbridge's third attack of appendicitis.

Relative of Prince of Wales Arrested.

St. Louis, Oct. 26.—V. J. Monereiffe, said to be a relative of the Prince of Wales and a brother of an English jobman residing at Perth, near Lenox, England, has been arrested on a charge of receiving $450 from A. R. Saincorb on a check drawn on the Liberator bank of Chicago, which the bank declined to cash.

C. F. CRISP'S FUNERAL

The ex-Speaker's Remains Laid to Rest in Georgia Soil.

AMERICA'S PUTS ON MOURNING GARB

The Governor and Staff, Members of the Bar, and a Military Company Take Part in the Last Rites.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 26.—The remains of ex-speaker Charles F. Crisp were interred in Oak Grove cemetery in Americus yesterday afternoon at twilight. The funeral train bearing the body of Georgia's dead statesman left Atlanta at 7.30 a. m. and arrived at Americus, his home, at 2 p. m. The casket, placed in a special car under a guard of honor, had a full glass front, so that his familiar face and form could be viewed by those who loved and honored him in life and now revere his memory in death. The massive casket was enshrined in the silken folds of the United States flag, while floral tributes of love covered the walls of the car and were piled in profusion in every available space. In the same car, in a closed compartment, were members of the family. At various stations along the route people congregated by thousands and were permitted to take a last look at their departed friend. The remains were accompanied by Gov. Atkinson and staff, delegations from Atlanta and other cities of the state, members of the Georgia bar association, Hon. Hoke Smith, ex-secretary of the interior, ex-senator Patrick Walsh of Augusta, congressman Chas. L. Bartlett and J. C. C. Black, ex-congressman Barnes, a military escort of commissioned officers of the Fifth Georgia regiment, and several hundred citizens.

Arrival of the Remains at Americus.

When the train arrived at Americus the entire population of the city had gathered at the depot. The vast assemblage stood in silence with uncovered heads to show their respect and grief for the dead. The tolling of bells in the city added to the solemnity of the occasion. The casket was conveyed from the special car to the hearse, which was drawn by four black horses, each led by a sable groom. The American Light infantry and a delegation of forty citizens preceded the hearse, and the procession started to the Methodist church. The buildings along the line of march were draped in mourning. At the church one hour was devoted by Mr. Crisp's friends in viewing the remains. It was a solemn procession. After the reading of appropriate passages of scripture and prayer, Gen. Clement A. Evans delivered a funeral oration. His tribute to the deceased was impressively touching. After the conclusion of the services the remains were conveyed to the cemetery. The procession passed by the house in which the Crisp family dwelt years ago. Friends had placed a large arch over the gateway, on which were the words "His Old Home." People lined the sidewalks from the church to the cemetery. Arriving at Oak Grove the military opened ranks and stood at present arms. The remains were carried to the family burial lot, and after a prayer, read by Gen. Evans, the body of the dead statesman was lowered into the grave to sleep beneath the soil of Georgia soil, under southern skies, in the city he loved and the section he served. The deep twilight that accompanied this last act of sorrowful duty added to the gloom of the occasion.

Wheat Conditions in Manitoba.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 26.—Wheat prices throughout Manitoba and the northwest continue at the top notch, being in no way affected by the speculative American markets. Sixty-five cents is the prevailing price and when the big milling companies get after each other the price may be anywhere between seventy cents and a dollar. The government has revised its estimate of the wheat yield of Manitoba, reducing the amount to something less than 15,000,000 bushels. The acreage under wheat was a little short of 1,000,000 acres. This does not include wheat of the northwest territories.

Three Prisoners Break Jail.

Lawrence, Pa., Oct. 26.—A bold escape took place Saturday night from the Lawrence county prison, John Mahoney, Edward Jones and Samuel Smith, who were awaiting trial for house robbery, gaining their liberty. The prisoners with the aid of rough tools made from their iron bedsteads cut a hole in the wall of their cell and scaled the outer wall with a rope made from their bedclothing. The escape was not discovered until several hours had passed as they were in citizens' dress, and had a good start there is little prospect that they will be recaptured.

Fast Ocean Voyage.

Montreal, Oct. 26.—The new steamship Canada of the Dominion line which left Quebec for the 17th inst., arrived here at 7 p. m. Saturday, making a voyage from port to port in seven days, five hours, the fastest time on record.

HISTORIC LANDMARKS.

Two of the Most Interesting Spots in America.

Williamsburg, Where the Revolution Began, and Yorktown, Where It Ended—Part Which the Same Points Played in the Civil War.

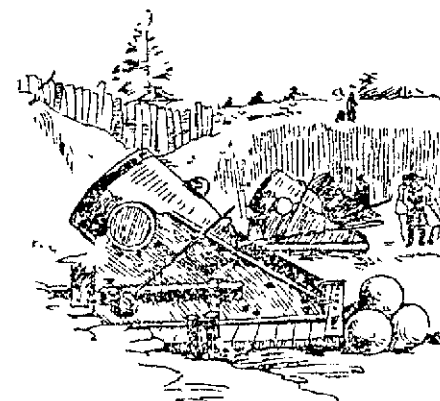

(Special Norfolk (Va.) Letter.)
The landmarks of the late war between the states are almost obliterated. Only slight traces of earthworks are to be found at Yorktown and Williamsburg—two of the most historic spots in America. The revolution began at the latter, and ended at Yorktown, with the surrender of Cornwallis. Near the statue commemorating that event are the traces of confederate fortifications, and on this field the confederate soldiers daily drilled until the town was captured by the union forces in May, 1862. Near this statue is a dome where ran the fortifications, which encompassed his downfall. On this same spot, a century previous, was an Indian village, and here were fought several battles between the colonists and Indians. For nearly a century the peninsula Indians under Chief Powhatan and the "Queen of the Pamounkey," made war upon the settlers, and not until after a most bloody massacre did the settlers formally organize and make anything like a united warfare. Raids were made every three months, until the Indians were nearly all killed, the few remaining becoming slaves to the planters. There is yet, however, on a narrow strip of land, near the historic White house, where Washington was married, and where McClellan burned millions' worth of property in his flight—a remnant of the "Pamounkey" tribe—the only Indians of the peninsula. They cultivate Indian corn, the same variety which the colonists found on their arrival, and which grew so luxuriantly in little patches along the banks of the rivers and streams.

SOLDIER AFTER RATIONS

At historic and quaint old Williamsburg, where the revolution began, and where the first blood of that war was shed, and where "Bacon's rebellion" was hatched a century before, are traces of "Fort Mifflin" and other defenses of the village. The "battle of Williamsburg" was fought on May 6, 1862. There was a hot skirmish on the previous afternoon, Sunday. On the 6th of May, 1776, the convention at Williamsburg declared in favor of separation from Great Britain, and instructed her delegates to the general congress to so declare. In the following month, Jefferson and George Mason drafted a bill of rights and a constitution for the state, which became substantially our Declaration of Independence and constitution. In a few days some young men were killed by "trap guns" while attempting to move powder from the magazine, which was near the present William and Mary college. Instead of placing sentinels to guard the magazine the governor had "trap guns" arranged. This was the first blood of the revolution, and it hastened the events that were to follow. The governor took to the woods of Gloucester, across the York river. Men were enrolled under command of Col. Patrick Henry, of Hanover county. He was evidently not born to command, for an interior officer on detached duty refusing to obey his orders so angered him that he resigned. He was then made governor, and became famous through that expression which make all school-boys swell out when speaking: "Give me liberty, or give me death!" with a tip to George III. This was the extent of Henry's military record—he sought death no further.

"Bacon's rebellion," which originated at this historic village a century before the great revolution, lasted about six months, and wound up at Jamestown—the spot where the colonists landed—the first settlement in America. There are to be seen traces of fortifications brown up during the recent rebellion, just above the old church walls and the graveyard—all that remains of historic Jamestown. Nathaniel Bacon was a rich man's son who, having squandered his estate, and too proud to live in poverty and work, and too good to become a highway robber, struck a general average, and got up a revolution. He wanted a roving commission and a command to fight the Indians. This being refused, he sought to overturn the government and the governor. He marched on Jamestown with his few hundred followers, and after several days' fighting was vanquished. He escaped to a point on the bay opposite Norfolk, where, it is believed, he was poisoned. Some of his followers were hanged in chains at the crossroads, which was the barbarous custom in those days. This, together with Bacon's resistance to oppression, planted the seeds which ripened into revolution.

Jamestown was the theater of war, until the governor of the colony, without any authority, removed headquarters to Williamsburg, then known as the "Middle Plantation." The other two were Yorktown and Jamestown. Old Powhatan, father of Pocahontas, known in song and story, had his headquarters at what is now known as White Oak swamp, where was fought one of the bloodiest battles of the civil war. Here his tribe were securely entrenched on a little neck of land, approached only through a morass. He also commanded the Chickahominy tribe, which gave the name to that river which marked the line of defense of the confederate army, and on whose banks another battle was fought. Powhatan's tribe met the colonists with arrows on their arrival and frequently attacked them afterwards.

Capt. Smith, who was governor of the colony, in order to keep down dissension among the colonists, many of whom wanted to go home, devised a raid by way of diversion. With about a dozen men he went up the Chickahominy. A few were killed, and Capt. Smith and a few others were captured. According to legend, Pocahontas came to the rescue by putting her head on the block. Smith's life was saved but they did not "live happily ever afterwards."

It is noticeable that all those places made historic by battles between the confederates and federals were also the battlefields of the colonists and Indians. Williamsburg, Jamestown, Yorktown, Cold Harbor, White Oak swamp, West Point, Warwick, and at a spot now known as Big Bethel, where occurred the first battle on Virginia soil during the war, on June 8, 1861. These points all had Indian names, which during colonial times were changed, and some of them again during the late war. Thus, it will be seen that these historic spots of the peninsula are especially interesting—the fields of three wars. No other state in the union is so battle-scarred or has so many historic fields of interest. The peninsula is the most interesting of all. Here, on a strip of land between the York and James rivers, about 60 miles in length, from the Chickahominy river to Chesapeake bay, were fought some of the bloodiest battles of a most bloody war. Two grand armies, each at times numbering 100,000 men, maneuvered, and the rivers were lined with water and land batteries, and filled with transports and men-of-war. The confederates at first occupied Yorktown and Williamsburg, with a line of batteries stretching across the peninsula some ten or twelve miles, also historic Norfolk, which at the beginning of the war had been evacuated without any reason or apparent danger.

From Yorktown and Williamsburg the confederates sallied forth at intervals, coming to within a few miles of Fortress Monroe, and within gun shot. Then the federals would take the offensive. This maneuvering continued for nearly a year, with occasional small battles to dispel the monotony, until McClellan's grand march toward Richmond, 100,000 strong. Then, without any defense, Norfolk was abandoned and partly burned by the confederates, with as little reason as the previous action of the federals. After the battles of Williamsburg and Yorktown, where the revolution began and ended, the confederates retired to the line of defense of old Powhatan—the Chickahominy. And McClellan made his base at West Point, the headquarters of the queen of the Pamounkey tribe, and their last retreat. The citizens, who were "divided two fires," fared badly all the time. Whether the federals advanced or the confederates retreated, and the reverse, requisitions were made upon them for provisions, especially poultry and hogs. As many as could loaded up their possessions, including slaves, and left for a less distracted and torn up country.

Visiting these battle fields, one-third of a century afterwards, the terrible scenes of those days arise before me as a horrible dream. I recall the hundreds of dead and dying that I saw upon the field—men who fought for glory's and country's sake. And here is the end of all.

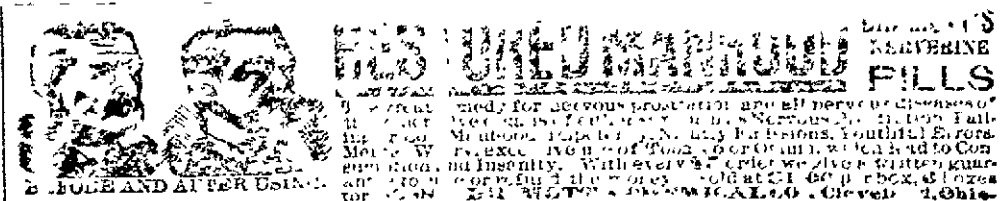

J. M. SCANLAND.

When Coffee Was Popular.
Coffee was introduced into England in 1652, and within the next ten years became the fashion of the drink of London. A few years later, however, in 1663, there was a great uprising against the "oriental beverage of hell." It was satirized on every hand, the bitterest invectives coming from the pulpits. One leading minister characterized it as "the sirup of root mixed with the essence of old shoes," and another declared that it was "a poison which God had made black that it might bear the devil's own color." This bitter crusade soon wore itself out, and by the time of Charles II. coffee-houses were known in every village in the land.—St. Louis Republic.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts, rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constant derangement of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly restores. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and everywhere esteemed so highly by those who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore an important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxative or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be recommended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

HOW TO VOTE.

Plain and Simple Directions—The Law Interpreted by the Attorney-General.

Attorney-General Hancock, in an opinion written Tuesday, gives the following simple directions to voters:

An examination of the law makes it apparent that in order to vote a straight ticket a cross mark is to be made in the circle at the head of the party column.

A split ticket may be voted in either of two ways:

1. By omitting a cross mark in the circle and making a cross mark in the voting space before the name of each candidate for whom the elector desires to vote on whatever ticket the name may appear.

2. By making a cross mark in the circle above the name of the party, some of whose candidates he desires to vote for, and a so making cross marks before the name or names of any candidates in other party columns for whom the elector wishes to vote, in which case his vote must be counted for every candidate under the circle except the candidates before whose names the elector has made his cross mark in other party columns. The candidate or candidates so individually marked in other party columns must be deemed the choice of the elector and his vote counted accordingly.

RECEIVES IN HER BATH.

Sovereign of Madagascar Transacts State Affairs in Her Tub.

Persons who pride themselves upon what they call their sturdy common sense affect to despise elaborate civilities under the expressive term of "starch." None the less, says the Denver Republican, do such sacrifices to exacting graces flourish, and certainly not less than in countries nearer home among the Hovas of Madagascar, who were, even before their annexation, noted for their fastidiousness. Starch is, however, at the court of Antananarivo no mere matter of form; rather, if anyone may say so, a form of matter, for it is the starch so indispensable in our laundries that, like Shakespeare's divinity, does indeed round the Queen Ranavaloa. She, like Marie Antoinette, is accustomed to receive state visitors in her morning tub, and quite seeing the disadvantages of having her bath water like her state policy, too clear, the starch is thrown into it to dissolve as a white veil around the queen. Among the dignitaries thus received by her was, according to the Paris correspondent of the Times, a French ambassador, M. de Villers, who, after a plentiful use of diplomatic "soft soap," retired highly confident. An old Hova, however, more experienced in Madagascar etiquette, took a different view of the results of M. de Villers' mission. "Oh, he will not obtain anything," he said; "there was too much starch." Excessive starch would seem to make queens and collars alike "stuck up."

SHE KILLED THE BEAR.

Her Method Was Original But None the Less Effective.

Some Philadelphia sportsmen hunting the deer in the wild portion of Clearfield county, in the center of the mountains of Pennsylvania, were hurriedly called out one morning by the guide, who had discovered two bucks a few miles away, says the New York World. Hastily starting, the men did not carry a large supply of ammunition and what they had was all used or wasted in bagging the deer. Starting back to camp, they encountered a bear and as they could not shoot they ran, each going in a different direction.

The bear chased the guide and he took the direct course toward the camp log house, where his wife was preparing a meal. With a yell he dashed into the house and up into the loft. His wife ran out of the back door, closed it, and as the bear had gone inside she hurried around, closed the front door and made the bear a prisoner.

The intrepid woman then tied a dog to a pole, thrust the howling canine through the door and thus coaxed the bear out. As he appeared she struck him with an ax and killed him at the first blow.

One of the hunters commented on her manner of fishing for a $50 bear with a dog worth $150, but the woman retorted:

"We generally shoot 'em, but we never miss 'em."

You don't have to find it. It's right there—and stays there.

And you don't forget it. It aches, and then aches some more.

Ever have that backache? Found it wasn't your back, didn't you?

The Kidneys are great grabbers when sick.

Hear them clear through the back. Feel them clear through the body.

It is kidney disease. And many fortunes follow.

Urinary troubles curse the life. And it's not worth the living.

Cure it and you'll have peace. You can do it easily.

By taking Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure every wrong condition of the kidneys.

Middletown people are learning this fact.

Wm. Dunlap, No. 32 Liberty street, follows the occupation of a blacksmith and can be found during working hours at the factory belonging to the Consolidated Milk Co. He says: "About seven years ago my kidney trouble commenced. At first it was only a backache now and then, by and by it became more frequent and the first thing I knew I had more of it than I could stand. So severe was it at times I could scarcely stand it. Soreness in the lower part of the abdomen set in and the urinary organs were deranged causing me to get up frequently at night and annoy me during the day. My past efforts to get rid of my trouble failed me but I determined to try again and I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at J. E. Mills' drug store, on North street. I am glad of the determination for I know now that Doan's Kidney Pills are all that is claimed of them. They cured me. I can conscientiously recommend them."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold for 50 cents per box or 6 boxes for $2.50. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Sent by mail on receipt of price. For sale by all dealers.

HE WON HIS CLIENT'S CASE.

Successful Venture of a Broker as a Criminal Advocate at the Bar.

A Jacksonville broker, while traveling in the Alabama mountains, was invited by a friend, a local judge, to attend the trial of a "cracker" for shooting a "nigger," and the prisoner having no money to hire a lawyer, the judge appointed the broker to defend him, alleging that if the broker was not a lawyer "he was an idiot because he wasn't one"—a judgment amply supported by his conduct of the case. The broker, says the San Francisco Argonaut, cross-examined the witnesses briefly, sending in now and then a discomfiting trajectory. When he came to make a speech he said: "Gentlemen of the jury, I have taken great pains to show you that my client was a respectable citizen. Ten witnesses have asserted—on oath, mind you—that he stands high in his community." The defendant was six feet three inches tall, and the jury smiled. "He stood high in the community, and that is sufficient. Now for the law. We find that the 26th verse of the 16th chapter of 'Chitty on Pleadings'—Chitty, gentlemen, was one of the bravest generals in the confederate army—this well-established principle of law." Here the broker adjusts his glasses, holds the book far off, elevates his chin and reads: "No respectable white man can be guilty of crime." That, gentlemen, is enough. Hear the case in your hands." Each juror changed his quid, looked at his neighbor, nodded, and, without leaving their seats, rendered a loud and emphatic verdict of "not guilty," and then joined in three cheers for the defendant and his lawyer.

CAT IN THE PULPIT.

Pastor Caught It by the Neck and the Usher Took It Away.

An inquisitive black cat strayed into the Bristol Methodist Episcopal church on a recent Sunday evening just before the services began, says the Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

There were very few people in the church at the time, but the loud and plaintive mewling of the stranger attracted their attention, and they watched its movements with interest.

The animal climbed up into the choir loft, perched upon the railing and looked down upon the congregation. After a time several members of the choir arrived and the cat scampered away, finally climbing down one of the wooden pillars which supported the choir loft and walked down into the aisle.

Several of the congregation endeavored to coax the cat into their pews, but the proud pussy ignored them and with stately dignity climbed up into the pulpit and sat on the Bible. When the pastor came in a moment later he found the cat in possession of the pulpit, but the animal took kindly to the preacher and began to purr and arch his back at the latter's approach.

The pastor took the cat by the back of the neck and handed it down to an usher, who carried puss out of the church. "This is a good omen, brethren," said the pastor and then he went on and preached his sermon.

Stage Coaches Robbed.

Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 26.—Positive information reached this city this morning that both the White Oaks and San Antonio mail coaches have been robbed in the Oscuran mountains as feared. The mail pouches were rifled, the stage horses were stolen and the driver had to walk to the nearest station. The thieves overlooked $2,000 in silver in their hurry. The thieves were recognized as belonging to the same band that held-up another coach several weeks ago.

If you think that your taxes have been too high vote the Democratic city ticket. Every candidate is in favor of more economical methods in the administration of city affairs.

As election day draws near the prospects of the Democratic city ticket brighten. The high character of the candidates and their conceded fitness and ability, together with the fact that they are pledged to more economical methods of city government are winning them the support of many Republicans, who are tired of high taxes and nothing to show for them.

The managers of the Democratic State campaign call the attention of voters and Democratic organizations generally to the fact that great care should be exercised this year to avoid loss through mistake in marking the ballot, especially the names of presidential electors. Any one who should mistakenly mark opposite the names of the presidential electors, which are directly above the list of electors, will lose his vote. The safest way is to place a cross in the circle below the party emblem, which is the five pointed star.

Ira L. Case, the Democratic candidate for Mayor, is one of Middletown's best known and most respected citizens. Clean handed, honorable and upright he will, if elected, give the city a clean and efficient administration and will represent the city creditably at home and abroad. He did not seek the nomination, and there are many citizens who will support him because they know he has no ambitions to further and no selfish ends to promote by his candidacy.

The political persons, who are whooping it up for McKinley because they are such fools as to believe that if Bryan is elected their salaries will be paid in fifty cent dollars, had all sorts of spasms yesterday, and raved about traitors, anarchists, repudiators and betrayers of the national honor. Incidentally, one of them, R. Heber Newton, said a good word for trusts. Not the least reason for being thankful that election day is near is that these sensation mongers will have to drop politics and resume the preaching of the gospel.

OBITUARY.

John S. Hatch.

John S. Hatch died, this morning, at Scotchtown, aged eighty-two years. He was born in Shawangunk and was a son of Thomas and Mary Rose Hatch. He had been ill for six months and had been confined to his bed since Friday last.

He is survived by his wife, whose maiden name was Nancy H. Alexander, to whom he was married fifty-one years ago. Three children survive, Mrs. Mary E. Sinsabaugh, at home, Mrs. John Chambers, of Montgomery, and John L., of Scotchtown.

Mr. Hatch united with the Presbyterian Church, thirty years ago, while engaged in farming in the town of Crawford. He removed to Scotchtown thirteen years ago and transferred his membership to the church in that village, and was faithful in the discharge of his religious duties so long as his health permitted.

The funeral notice appears elsewhere.

Hattie Frame.

Hattie, daughter of John Frame, died Sunday evening, at 86 Canal street, aged twenty-five years. She had been ill five months. She was born in Middletown and had always made her home here. Her mother's maiden name was Margaret Lemon.

Besides her parents, she is survived by one brother, two sisters, Sarah A., at home, Jane, wife of Chas. Ploughman, of this city, and George, of this city. She was a member of the Second Presbyterian Church.

The funeral notice appears elsewhere.

James B. Hoyt.

James B. Hoyt died, Sunday evening, at the residence of his brother-in-law, B. S. Crist, at Howells, where he had lived for about two years, coming there from Jersey City. His age was fifty-eight years. He was a son of Archibald Hoyt, deceased.

He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Sarah E. Wheat, Maria, wife of Dinmick Loud, of Jersey City, and Adeline, wife of B. S. Crist, of Howells.

Funeral notice elsewhere.

INSANE IN THE STREET.

A Walton Woman Causes Excitement at Pronk's Corner.

There was considerable excitement at Pronk's corner, this afternoon, caused by the crazy actions of a woman, a Mrs. Eels, of Walton.

She was brought to this city to be placed in the State Hospital, but the papers had not been properly prepared and she could not be received. Her attendants then started to take her to Thrall Hospital to await the preparation of the papers, and it was while waiting for a car that she became violent. Dr. Spiegel was called in, but could do nothing for the woman. He says she is insane.

BEQUESTS TO MIDDLETOWN CHARITIES.

Legacies to Thrall Hospital and Old Ladies' Home.

Legal proceedings were held, this afternoon, before H. W. Wiggins, Esq., to determine the tax under the collateral inheritance law against the several legacies under the will of Isaac H. J. Wickham.

Middletown's interest in the proceedings is as to whether legacies of $200 each bequeathed to Thrall Hospital and The Home for Aged Women are subject to this tax.

Admitted to the Bar.

Port Jervis has turned out another lawyer, Graham Witschick, who has just received word that his examination at Syracuse, Oct. 14th, was successful, and that he has been admitted to the bar of New York.

POLITICAL DON'TS.

Some Things You Must Not Do on Election Day.

—Don't go outside of guard rail under any circumstances or for any cause until you have voted. Otherwise you lose the right to vote.

—Don't forget that you are entitled to ask successively altogether for three ballots if you have done anything which renders a ballot void.

—Don't deface or tear your ballot, or erase any printed device, figure or word thereon, or soil it in any way. If you do your ballot will be void.

—Don't mark your ballot with anything but a pencil having black lead. If you use any kind of ink or any other kind of lead pencil, your ballot will be void.

—Don't draw a line through the name of any candidate against whom you wish to vote. If you do so, your ballot will not be counted. The old manner of scratching now makes your ballot void.

DISCREDITABLE REPUBLICAN POLITICS.

How a Non-Partisan Club in Bloomingburgh Was Blamed by Designing Monomaniacs Into Listening to a Partisan Speech.

About a week ago, a bimetallic league was organized in Bloomingburgh for the friendly discussion of the coinage question. C. B. King, a Republican, was elected President, and a Democrat and a Republican were elected Vice Presidents.

It was clearly understood by all that politics should not be discussed at the meetings of the club, and only a few days ago a Democrat who made a remark that savored somewhat of partisan bias was promptly called down by the President.

It was arranged that the League should have a debate last Saturday night on the question:

"The effects in the past of bimetalism and gold monometallism."

Those who favored bimetalism selected C. E. Elston, the village school master to take that side of the question, and the monometallists agreed to furnish their man and finally announced as their speaker, Wm. Henry Spendley.

Saturday evening came and the people generally expected to hear the question debated fairly and honestly. There were others however, who had laid a plot to have a McKinley speech unloaded upon the club and the citizens of Bloomingburgh and it was carried out.

Mr. Spendley arrived an hour late and the people were already tired of waiting. After a conference with Harry Brown, one of the most prominent Republican politicians, Mr. Spendley came upon the platform and announced to President King that he did not come to debate, but that he came from the Republican committee to make a campaign speech, and while it is only fair to say that his speech was a good one from his standpoint, it was a great surprise and disappointment to most people present.

For an hour and a half Mr. Spendley talked McKinleyism and the audience became weary. At 10:30 o'clock he quit and then Mr. Elston arose to give expression to his surprise and indignation at the trick that had been played upon the people, but immediately a systematic scheme to prevent his speaking was shown. He was interrupted by Mr. Spendley, and even the president of the club from the platform and by Mr. Brown and others from the rear of the hall, and after a few minutes gave up the attempt in disgust.

The scheme went through as it was intended by the Republican politicians, but it accomplished nothing for the Republican ticket. Even McKinley Republicans condemn it, and some silver Republicans have come forward since to assure their Democratic bimetallic friends that the speech did not win back a single silver Republican, and of course it didn't make any converts from the Democratic ranks.

The general belief is that Mr. Spendley knew nothing of the discreditable plot in which he was made a chief actor; he was sent to Bloomingburgh by the Republican committee to make a Republican speech and made it and will get his pay for it.

Laying a New Water Main.

The work of laying a new six-inch water main in King street, to replace the old cement pipe, was begun this morning.

5 Sores

In combination, proportion and process Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar to itself, and unequalled in true merit. No other medicine ever possessed so much curative power, or reached such enormous sales, or made such wonderful cures, as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

It is undoubtedly the best medicine ever made to purify, vitalize and enrich the blood.

That is the secret of its success.

Read this statement:

"When my son was 7 years of age, he had rheumatic fever and acute rheumatism, which settled in his left hip. He was so sick that no one thought there was any help for him. Five sores broke out on his thigh, which the doctor said were sores. We had three different doctors. Pieces of bone came out of the sores. The last doctor said the leg would have to be cut open and the bone scraped, before he could get well. Howard became so low that he would eat nothing, and one doctor said there was no chance for him.

Scrofula

"One day, a newspaper recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla was left at our door. We decided to try this medicine. Howard commenced taking it the last of February, after having been sick for a year and a half. He hadn't taken it a week before I saw that his appetite began to improve, and then he gained rapidly. I gave him five bottles, when the sores were all healed and they never broke out again. The crutches he had used for four years were laid aside, as he had no further use for them. I give all the credit to Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. ADA L. MOODY, Day Street, Lynn, Mass.

This and many similar cures prove that

JUDGE DICKEY'S SPECIAL TERM.

A $500 Counsel Fee Allowed in the Roe Divorce Suit—A Land Damage Case.

In Judge Dickey's Special Term at Newburgh, Saturday, Counselor Vanantwerp asked for counsel fee in a suit of separation instituted by Carrie T. Roe against George M. Roe. The parties live at Monroe and the husband still supports the wife. Therefore, no alimony is desired. The woman sues on the ground of cruel treatment, and alleges mental cruelty, not physical. It is alleged that the husband applied language to his wife that the lawyer would not repeat in court, and has made serious accusations. Mr. W. F. O'Neill opposed the motion. Judge Dickey took Mr. Vanantwerp's papers which recited the facts, and after reading the terms applied by Mr. Roe to the wife the Court ordered $500 counsel fee.

In the matter of the application of George W. Russell and others for the appointment of commissioners to drain certain lands in Sullivan county and the town of Deepark an adjournment was taken until Nov. 28th.

In the case of William L. Cuddeback vs. Sarah E. Phelps motion for judgment in foreclosure and sale was granted.

POUNDED THE HYPNOTIC SLEEPER.

A Philadelphia Outdoos Middletown Physician in His Attempt to Rouse a Hypnotized Subject.

The recent attempt of certain Middletown physicians to awaken Hypnotist Leeds' subject from a twenty-four hour sleep gives local interest to the following incident recorded by the Philadelphia correspondent of the The Lancet:

A hypnotist had been giving exhibitions in one of the Philadelphia theatres, and as a "special feature" he put a victim into a sleep that was to last seventy-two hours, placed him in a store window in a prominent thoroughfare, and offered $100 to any one who could rouse the sleeper before the time named. One man, anxious to earn the money, failing to make any impression on the victim by tickling, prodding, etc., became desperate and struck him some heavy blows with his fists, without accomplishing his object, however, but injuring him severely. Just at this juncture the "professor" arrived. He was ordered to arouse the man, which he did, when it was found necessary to remove him to a hospital.

The 24th Separate Company Band and the DeWitt Fire and Drum Corps will accompany the excursion to participate in the parade.

NEW BOOKS IN THE LIBRARY.

One Hundred and Thirty-Nine Well Selected New Books Ready for Borrowers.

One hundred and thirty-nine new books will be ready for borrowers at the public library this evening. Among them are Chamber's "Travels in Africa," Miss Ward's "Bicycling for Ladies," Scribner's new book on angling, the third and last volume of the Wiggins and Smith kindergarten series, ten volumes of Scribner's "Stories from English Authors," Crockett's "Sweetheart Travelers," Strauchman's "Complete History of French Painting," Trowbridge's "Electricity," "Sentimental Tommy" by Barrie, "Mind of the Master" and "Kate Carnegie" by MacLaren, "Heart of Princess Osa" by Anthony Hope, "Mrs. Gerald" and "In a Dike Shanty" by Miss Pool.

HOSPITAL DONATION DAY.

Out of Your Abundance Remember the Hospital, Next Wednesday.

Wednesday, Oct. 28th, will be donation day at Thrall Hospital and the people of Middletown and vicinity are earnestly appealed to to bring or send to the hospital on that day gifts of any and every kind that may be of use in the institution. Needed goods and supplies, fruits and vegetables, groceries and household supplies of any kind will be most gratefully received. The needs of the hospital are many, and our people by responding liberally on donation day will help a worthy charity and do much to lighten the cares and duties of the Board of Managers.

O. and W.'s Annual Fall Excursion.

To-day is the date of the O. and W.'s annual fall excursion to New York city, when from all stations on the line round trip tickets are sold for the regular rate one way. The Sullivan County Express, this morning, had 515 passengers on board, 125 of whom were from this city. The day express, this afternoon, and the night express will also carry large loads of excursionists from up the road.

Too Enterprising News Dealers.

The enterprise of rival news dealers in their efforts to get their papers into the hands of their patrons as soon as possible is all right, but they are not justified in racing their horses through the streets at a time when they are crowded with church goers as was the case, yesterday, when several persons narrowly escaped being run down. There is reason in all things.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.

A PASTOR INSTALLED.

Rev. J. N. Emery Formally Placed in Charge of the Universalist Church, Last Night.

The Assembly Rooms were crowded, last night, every seat being taken and the aisles filled with chairs, and still some were compelled to stand, while others still were turned away. The fact that no services were held in some of the other churches and that special services, the installation as pastor of the Universalist Church of Rev. J. N. Emery, were held at the Assembly Rooms, accounted in a measure for the unusually large congregation.

The following order of services was carried out in full:

—Anthem—"Sing, O Ye Heavens!"
—Reading of Scriptures.
—Rev. Chas. H. Eaton, D. D., New York.
—Contralto Solo—"There is a Green Hill Far Away."
—Miss Carrie B. Ireland.
—Prayer of Installation.
—Rev. J. Coleman Adams, D. D., Brooklyn.
—Soprano Solo—"I Will Extend Thee, O Lord!"
—Sermon—"The Power of Jesus' Name."
—Rev. Chas. H. Eaton, D. D., New York.
—Charge to the People.
—Rev. J. Coleman Adams, D. D., Brooklyn.
—Anthem—"The Lord is My Rock."
—Lord's Prayer.
—Benediction.
—By the Pastor.

The sermon by Rev. Dr. Edwin C. Bolles, of New York, was an able and eloquent discourse, and was listened to with the closest attention by the large congregation. He stated that he performed the same office at the installation of Rev. Mr. Emery over a church twenty-four years ago.

The charge to the pastor, by Rev. Dr. Charles H. Eaton, of New York, was eloquent and very impressive.

Rev. Dr. Adams' charge to the people was full of wise counsel which, if followed by the members of the church, will very materially aid the new pastor in his work and will make the Universalist Church an important factor in the sisterhood of christian churches in this community.

TWO RUNAWAYS.

A Team That Didn't Mind a Load of Cement—A Dash Through North Street.

The team attached to Gordon & Horton's delivery wagon took flight, this morning, at the puffing of an O. and W. engine and ran up Railroad avenue to Montgomery street, where they were caught after turning the corner. No damage was done. There were two barrels of cement in the wagon, but the horses ran on Railroad avenue as high speed as if they were dragging an empty wagon.

Herman Dolloway's team of horses ran away, yesterday, and broke loose from the wagon. They were caught on North street after they had become pretty well winded. They caused but little damage.

The Children and the Ho-pital Donation Day.

It has been suggested that the school children of this city can render great help to Thrall Hospital, on Wednesday, Oct. 28th, donation day, if they will interest themselves in the work of securing gifts. It has been proposed that the children make pound donations and bring to the hospital packages containing a pound or anything that may be of use in the institution.

Before the Recorder.

—An ex-motorman was fined $3 for intoxication, this morning.

—A North End wife caused the arrest of her husband on a charge of disorderly conduct. At the hearing, this morning, the offender pleaded guilty, but upon his promise to do better and taking the pledge for one year, the Recorder discharged him.

A Democratic Rally at Washingtonville.

A Democratic rally will be held on Wednesday evening, Oct. 28th, at 7:30 o'clock, under the auspices of the Blooming Grove Free Silver Club, at Moffat Library Hall, Washingtonville. Dr. T. S. Gillson, of Middletown, and Edwin S. Merrill, Democratic candidate for Special County Judge, will address the meeting. All are invited.

A Resort for Tramp Dogs.

From the Paterson Press.

A wide tract of woodland lying between Bergen fields and Tenally, Bergen county, has become a resort for numerous tramp dogs, which are making the miserable for farmers by killing poultry. Many of the dogs have become so vicious that residents seldom venture into the woods without being armed with clubs.

Democratic Meeting To-night—Drunk and Disorderly—Saturday's Game of Foot Ball—Republicans at Arden—Excitement on the "Green."

From Our Regular Correspondent

—A meeting under the auspices of the Goshen Bryan and Sewall Club will be held at Music Hall, to-night. Hon. Edward J. Wilde, of New Jersey, and Dr. Thos. L. Gillson, of Middletown, will address the meeting on the political issues of the campaign as viewed from a Democratic standpoint. Voters generally, irrespective of party, are invited to be present. Ladies are especially invited.

—Saturday night Officer Van Leaven arrested "Sam" Ransom for being drunk and disorderly. He was fined $5.

—A scrub team, composed largely of ex-foot ball players, defeated the Goshen Scholastic eleven, Saturday afternoon in a closely contested game. The score was 16 to 12.

—About fifteen Republicans, accompanied by the colored drum corps, went to Arden, Saturday night, and heard Benjamin F. Tracy and Judge Fisher, of Chautauque county, speak at E. H. Hariman's flag raising.

—There was an exciting time for a few moments on the "Green" yesterday morning. One of its cultured residents went to sleep in an upholstered arm chair with a loaded pipe in his hand and the combustible material of the chair ignited. Some one shouted "fire" and "murder" and a crowd quickly gathered, but a bucket of water conveniently at hand drowned the blaze and the citizens was over.

A PRISONER ESCAPES.

Allowed to Go to a Room Alone to Change His Clothes and Was Seen No More.

Bill Bock, of Port Jervis, was on Friday sentenced to thirty days at the Goshen stone yard for stealing coal. After sentence was passed he asked an officer to go with him to his home in Germantown that he might change his clothing and bid his family good bye.

The officer went with him and sat in the kitchen while his prisoner went into a bed room adjoining to change his clothing. After waiting a reasonable length of time the officer peered into the room. The prisoner was not there and an open window told the story of his escape. At last accounts he was still missing.

A Sussex County Farmer Drowned.

Anthony Longcor, a highly respected farmer of Greenville, Sussex county, was drowned, Thursday. He had enclosed a portion of a brook, near his barn, so as to form a small reservoir. Thursday he went to the reservoir to get a pail of water and in some way fell, his head striking a rock, which, it is supposed, rendered him insensible and with his head in the water he soon suffocated. Mr. Longcor was sixty-four years old.

A Bright October Sunday.

Middletowners took advantage of the fine weather, yesterday, and those who had wheels or horses or wagons made the most of the day by taking rides or drives into the country. Those less fortunate made shorter excursions on foot, but enjoyed the outings all the same.

Coaching Party at Bloomingburgh.

A coaching party from Philadelphia is stopping for a few days at Schubert's in Bloomingburgh. They make daily trips into the surrounding country, and are getting a great deal of enjoyment out of their trips.

The centennial of Delaware county opens on March 19th 1897, but the exercises will probably be held early in the month of May, a more suitable season of the year.

Tired Feeling Cured.
"I was laid up with a first feeling, which afflicted me especially in the morning when I was hardly able to move. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and when I had used three bottles I was entirely cured. I have not been obliged to take any medicine since that time."—Isaac L. Allen, N. Y.
